The Okaloosa County Commission on the Status of Women, in partnership with the University of West Florida, proudly presents the Okaloosa County Women's Wall of Honor, a series of plaques honoring special Okaloosa County Women. The 4 1/2 by 6 inch plaques are displayed in the library at the Fort Walton Beach Campus of the University of West Florida. Each plaque is accompanied by a short biography. This is an ongoing endeavor that is open each spring for additional nominations.

Above is a list of 2006 honorees for the Wall of Honor and the names of those who nominated them. For more information about this and other OCCSW programs, please visit us on the web at <http://www.occsww.org>.
