

WOMEN'S WALL OF HONOR

Special to The Log

MAKING A DIFFERENCE: Many of the 13 women added to the Okaloosa County Women's Wall of Honor are pictured in this group.

Honorees named for Women's Wall of Honor

Thirteen exceptional women were recently honored in a ceremony and awarded a plaque, which was added to the Okaloosa County Women's Wall of Honor.

The Wall is located in the library at the Fort Walton Beach campus of the University of West Florida.

Also on display at the Wall is a book containing a biographical page for each woman.

This years honorees

are: Myra Arnold, Shirley Daniel, Kathy Foster, Mitzi Prince Henley, Dr. Diane Kelley, Marilue Mitchell Maris, Levada Meredith, Anna Peele, Doris E. Stone, Dee Taylor, Phyllis Wade, Carol White and Pam White.

Friends, family and co-workers nominated the women for the honor by citing contributions to the community, family, church, etc.

The Wall of Honor was established by the Okaloosa County Commission on the Status of Woman in partnership with the University of West Florida.

Nominations are taken once a year and there is a $100 application fee. For more information visit www.OCCSW.org.

This article was contributed to The Log by Okaloosa County Commission on the Status of Woman.

Added to the Okaloosa County Commission on the Status of Women's Wall of Honor were: Back Row (l-r) Shirley Daniels, Mitzi Henley, Dr. Diane Kelley, Levada Meredith, Jerry Stone for Doris Stone and Carol White. Front Row (l-r) Myra Arnold, Kathy Foster, Phyllis Wade, Dee Taylor, Anna Peele and Pam White. Not pictured - Marilue Mitchell Maris.

8002
elf 2008

First row: Myra Arnold, Kathy Foster, Phyllis Wade, Dee Taylor, Anna Peele and Pam White

Back row: Shirley Daniels, Mitzi Henley, Dr. Diane Kelley, Levada Meredith, Jerry Stone for Doris Stone and Carol White

Not pictured - Marilue Mitchell Maris